Hebrews

2:10

From the Pastor...

Audrey Drummonds is the founder of Interior Coverings Ministry which was started because of a vision the Lord gave her of the interior of a person's house giving real insight of who they are. She is a graduate of Liberty University in Theology; a graduate of the International Institute of Alternative Medicine; Philosophy and Research; and has degrees in Dental Hygiene, Dental Assisting, and Nursing Assisting. She shares in the responsibility of owning a construction company and doing real estate investing. Her life experiences and educational training have encouraged her to see our Father's Word, each and every word, as spiritual and eternal. For we are spiritual beings and our flesh is subject to our spirit.

Snowshoe -

A letter from Greg...

I want to thank Interior Coverings Ministry for giving me the opportunity to be a part of a youth mission trip to Snowshoe. It was a great experience being up in the mountains, admiring the beauty of the snow-caps, and the gorgeous peaks brought a sensation of masterful creation.

Being able to intensely study the Word and engage in conversation about the Lord was a feeling one could never forget with such surrounding beauty. While riding down the slopes with the breeze in my face and the sun shining, the presence of God could be seen all around. The fellowship, the worship, and the experience were all more than expected among any of us in our group.

Thank you, ICM, for your support.

Foreign Missions

Honduras - a testimony of the March '03 Mission Trip...

We installed two stations consisting of a Yaesu FT-840 HF Transceiver, power supply, tuner, and 40-meter dipole antenna. The two stations were located at the Missionary Base Camp and the Bible Institution. We were able to reconstruct a 50-foot tower from a dilapidated tower left by a prior government agency back in the 70's. We engineered a solar panel, a make shift power distribution panel, and a battery bank at the Bible Institution. We also installed a light source at the Institution so that the station could be operated after dark.

The Mission now has the capability to communicate to the nearby Institution, across the lagoon to the docks and main village, as well as back to the continental United States.

The Missionaries were very grateful for all the contributions that ICM made in purchasing the radio equipment. Much hard work went into the project. The stations will not only benefit the logistic requirements of the Mission, but they also provide a means for emergency relief during a major crisis

My thanks goes out to all that contributed and prayed for this project.

Respectfully,

Michael Thomas

Janet's "JOT" and Audrey's "TITLE"

"The Container" by Janet Bassett

God often speaks to us through object lessons. One morning, while filling a Gatorade bottle with water, I thought of how people would, at first glance, think that I had Gatorade, but if they looked more closely, they would see that it was water.

Then a thought came to me:

"The container doesn't matter, it's what is inside that counts." God reminded me that my body is the vessel (container) of the Spirit of God who dwells in me. "What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Food For Thought...

Who do people see when they look at me?

Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

Galatians 5:22-25, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit."

1 John 4:12-16, "No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."

Standing Before God" by Audrey Drummonds

Only the presence of God could stand before God. The High Priest could not go into the Holy of Holies without being totally sanctified and covered with righteousness. We have the mindset that those who have not received Jesus Christ will stand before God at the great white throne of judgment, and then be cast into eternal hell.

What does Scripture say?

John 5:22, "The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son."

Romans 8:38-39, "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Colossians 1:16-17, "For by Him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him, and for Him: and He is before all things, and by Him all things consist."

2 Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness: but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

Take all these verses in the context of the ultimate love of a Father who has unconditional mercy and forgiveness. Consider also that He is eternal, He is light, and He is life. There is no limit of time when it comes to the things of God.

When we stand before God, who does God see? God can only be in the presence of Himself, perfect love. When He sees you He sees the body of His Son, Jesus Christ; His perfect Son.
