2:10

FROM THE PASTOR...

By now, most of us have had some sort of exposure to Mel Gibson's movie: The Passion of the Christ. Whether we agree or disagree with the movie, it has caused a major stirring across America and other countries to question what really took place in Jerusalem during this time of year over 2000 years ago.

This Passover season of 2004 has given us the opportunity to reflect in our own lives what the cross that Jesus carried means personally. Most of us view our spiritual walk at the foot of the cross of Jesus looking up at the suffering which took place. However, without the resurrection of Easter morning there is no uniqueness in the life and death of Jesus versus any of the other prophets and teachers the world has experienced over time.

The Bible tells us about Jesus, but it is also the manuscript our Heavenly Father gave mankind to find his true identity, and to take his place as the spotless Bride of Christ. Jesus was the first born Son of God raised from the dead. Scripture does not tell us that he is the only one to be raised, but He is the first, or the head of a body to be raised. Selah. We are also told that because of what He did on Calvary, we now have the capacity as Christians to be doing greater works than what was seen by Him.

Most Christians are accepting of the supernatural power that resurrected Jesus from death, hell, and the grave; but what about the rest of His body?

Hebrews 6:1-2 tells us we should have moved beyond the resurrection of the dead into perfection, yet the majority of what we identify as the body of Christ is still trying to decide if they are a "sinner saved by grace" or a "saint going through transformation."

Many of our churches today have been obtaining spiritual growth from leaders and instructors with intellectual religious knowledge, but very few have "fathers" that are overseeing the body. So what is a "father" in the body of Christ? Jesus said, "When you see me you see the Father." He also said, "He calls his sheep by name, and they know His voice", which is the same voice of God our Father.

Do the leaders on the church platform reveal servant hood and sacrifice of personal glory to lift the children to a double portion of blessings? Do they reveal the loving arms and unconditional mercy of a father overseeing that no one in the family is lacking of anything, even if it means going without for themselves? Do they declare blessings by faith seeing the hope that lies ahead of each individual, versus the self-centered and rebellious nature of the congregation that is prevalent?

We see churches today with large numbers and big buildings, however, rather than being overseen by a "father" the congregation is taken on a "date" Sunday mornings to have a good time. They may be impregnated with a seed of revelation which gives them a high, but after the service is over, many times the congregation is left on their own trying to give birth to the revelation. They are not given the training of a father to know the unconditional love and mercy, so they mix "unconditional grace" with "works" or "justification" to appease their natural mind trying to understand the ways of God.

We have a country full of children of God, but very few sons doing the Father's business. The glory of God is to see the manifested double portion of His image and power reflected through us. All that Jesus did with signs and wonders should be a reflection, or

Are You Jesus?
by Janet Bassett

This story was sent to me through e-mail and it is such "Food For Thought" that I want to share it with you. The author is unknown. Be blessed as you read...

Are You Jesus?

A few years ago a group of salesmen went to a regional sales convention in Chicago. They had assured their wives that they would be home in plenty of time for Friday night's dinner. Well, as such things go, one thing led to another. The sales manager went longer than anticipated and the meeting ran overtime. Their flights were scheduled to leave out of Chicago's O'Hare Airport, and they had to race pell mell to the airport. With tickets in hand, they barged through the terminal to catch their flight back home. In their rush, with tickets and briefcases, one of these salesmen inadvertently kicked over a table, which held a display of baskets of apples. Apples flew everywhere. Without stopping or looking back, they all managed to reach the plane in time for their nearly missed boarding. All but one. He paused, took a deep breath, got in touch with his feelings, and experienced a twinge of compassion for the girl whose apple stand had been overturned. He told his buddies to go on without him, waved goodbye, told one of them to call his wife when they arrived at their home destination and explain his taking a later flight. Then he returned to the terminal where the apples were all over the terminal floor. He was glad he did.

The 16-year-old girl was totally blind! She was softly crying, tears running down her cheeks in frustration, and at the same time helplessly groping for her spilled produce as the crowd swirled about her, no one stopping, and no one to care for her plight. The salesman knelt on the floor with her, gathered up the apples, put them into the baskets, and helped set the display up once more. As he did this, he noticed that many of them had become battered and bruised; these he set aside in another basket. When he had finished, he pulled out his wallet and said to the girl, "Here, please take this $20 for the damage we did. Are you okay?"

She nodded through her tears. He continued on with, "I hope we didn't spoil your day too badly."

As the salesman started to walk away, the bewildered blind girl called out to him, "Mister...." He paused and turned to look back into those blind eyes.

She continued, "Are you Jesus?"

He stopped in mid-stride, and he wondered. Then slowly he made his way to catch the later flight with that question burning and bouncing about in his soul:

Food For Thought...

"Are you Jesus?"

Do people mistake you for Jesus? That's our destiny, is it not? To be so much like Jesus that people cannot tell the difference as we live and interact with a world that is blind to His love, life and grace. If we claim to know Him, we should live, walk and act as He would. Knowing Him is more than simply quoting Scripture and going to church. It's actually living the Word as life unfolds day to day. You are the apple of His eye even though we, too, have been bruised by a fall. He stopped what He was doing and picked you and me up on a hill called Calvary and paid in full for our damaged fruit. Let's start living like we are worth the price He paid.

Prophetic Word for 2004

by Audrey Drummonds

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The following is a prophetic word I received on New Years day 2004 as I was spending time alone in His presence. May it encourage and bless you with anticipation of what God has planned for the coming year.

Our Father's blessings and love be with you,
Reverend Audrey

"I do not need to prove or justify my Being. I am that I am. There is no other. I am the Beginning AND the End, not just the Beginning and then see what happens to the End. I am the New Age. I am the Kingdom Now. I am the Finished work. I am the denomination and different religions. I died for ALL my children, the just and the unjust. I shine on ALL. The first Adam is my son and the last Adam is my Son. All are of one bloodline, mine. Those that know me as God, needing to study to show themselves approved, are my children needing schoolmasters. My Son Jesus went through this till I acknowledged Him as my beloved Son in whom I was well pleased at the Jordan River. Those that know me as Father do not need to "study" me or have my other children tell them what I said. They KNOW ME with the intimacy of being one with me. I have taken their self identity and they KNOW they NOW walk with my identity. We have not just discussed or talked about intimacy, but the experience has been completed. They are ME, body, soul, and spirit. My temple is not just the inner court, but all 3 courts have My being. They have all the power and authority that Jesus walked on the earth displaying. They KNOW they can come boldly to me and sit with me. They KNOW that when they speak it is ME. They do not have to prove their identity with names or titles when they walk among my children, but show my children ME. All of my creation is hungering with the longing for my children to grow up and do my business, to bring forth the fullness of my Son's bride, no longer a bride, but a wife and ambassador for My Kingdom here on earth. The earth belongs to Me and ALL that is in it. Just as my word ALL means the fullness of eternity so does the word Finished. My sons KNOW to bring eternity of the finished work into the time that I have placed them in to do my business. To see ALL through the finished work so that through the unconditional love and mercy my sons show to the world, being in this world, but not of the world my children will be drawn unto me. I in them and them in me for I am ALL in ALL. There is no other. My sons shall BE so that I shall BE, glorified in ALL. If this generation hinders then I will go to the next for I am longsuffering and eternally patient with love and mercy. My will is complete that none shall perish as it is in heaven so shall it be on the earth. Show my children their Father with a heart and eyes that unconditionally forgive leaving in the presences of sin, My love and mercy." Amen

Father God.

shadow, behind us for others to see causing a drawing out of love, not condemnation, to desire to know the Father. After 2000 years, the body of Christ should have a confidence of knowing the power and resurrection of their Father to declare NOW that the earth is filled with His glory. With Jesus, there was no sickness, disease, poverty, or fear, even though there was chaos in the land. The church should be setting the way for the world to follow according to the example Jesus gave, yet most Christians are just waiting to get on the other side when their body dies.

In Galatians 2:20 we are told that we are not at the foot of the cross, but that we have hung on the cross with Him. We are also told that as He was raised from the dead, so were we 2000 years ago.

If we remember only the Passover week then death prevails. If we bring forth the resurrection power that raised Jesus, then LIFE will be manifested in those that believe. We are to be doing greater works. Let us begin today to BE the manifested sons of God that all of creation is anxiously waiting to see.

Your sister in Christ,

Reverend Audrey
